1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

- Please amend claim 1 due to a redundant language in the claim.

1. A motor assembly for a well pump, comprising:

a motor;

an electrical connector assembly on the motor having an insulator with a passage;

an electrical conductor having an insulation layer on its exterior and extending from the motor into the passage of the insulator;

the passage having an inner diameter that is larger than an outer diameter of the insulation layer, defining an annular cavity between the insulation layer and the inner diameter of the passage;

an electrical connector joined to the electrical conductor within the passage; and an elastomeric debris seal around the insulation layer, the debris seal having a final size in which it seals around the insulation layer and blocks entry of debris into the annular cavity, the debris seal being of a material that swells upon contact with a dielectric fluid and [has an] having an initial size in which it does not seal the annular cavity to enable the dielectric fluid to flow into the annular cavity prior to the debris seal reaching the final size.

The application has been amended as follows:

Art Unit: 2833

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 1-3 and 21, the prior art of record fails to teach a motor having a connector with a debris seal that is swell upon contact with a dielectric fluid.

Regarding claims 4-20, the prior art of record fails to teach a motor having an elastomeric upper adapter debris seal in the upper adapter passage that seals around the upper wire to prevent debris from collecting around the upper wire and the upper electrical connector in the upper adapter passage.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
